○ The applicant wants to use the holder data to assure themselves about the holder of the domain because the applicant has obtained an enforceable title against the holder and intends to garnish on the basis of this title the claims of the domain holder resulting from the domain contract by means of a garnishing order under civil law.

A copy of the title is attached.

○ The applicant has sought a judicial garnishing order against the presumptive domain holder by which the holder's claims resulting from the domain contract are garnished, and wants to assure themselves by means of the holder data that the presumptive holder actually is the domain holder.

A copy of the garnishing order and proof of service to the debtor is attached.

If I am not the applicant myself, I hereby assure that I am the applicant's legal representative or that I am authorised by the applicant to submit this application. I am fully aware that DENIC can request documentary evidence of my legal power of representation or a power of attorney to be submitted as a condition for further processing this application.
